

Peace Music Ministry

Ric Jaeggi, Director of Music

The Music Ministry at Peace wishes to thank you for taking a moment to read this brochure describing the many musical offerings of Peace Lutheran Church.

We trust you have found several concerts to your liking and marked them on your calendar. There is always a light reception following performances. It is our hope that you will stay, enjoy the refreshments and greet the performers.

“Music at Peace” concerts accept free-will donations unless noted otherwise. The gifts collected go to support the annual music budget of the Church. Purchasing music, tuning pianos and artists’ honorariums are just a few examples of the many costs of producing “Music at Peace.” All gifts are tax deductible.

Most importantly, we thank you for the contribution of your attendance. Your presence helps as we share the joy that is music from the past, the present and look to the future for music yet to be composed.

Music At Peace

2019-2020

With great joy, we offer this celebration of music as uniquely presented by Peace Lutheran Church for the 2019-2020 concert season.

We have many talented people within our church family and friends. We are pleased to share those talents with you and your friends.

Please save the dates now and come find musical sanctuary in our beautiful Worship Center.

This is an open invitation, All are welcome. Come share moments of exquisite joy, sounds of silence and orderly cacophony.

Lee Van Asten & More Friends
November 24, 2019
at 2:00pm

We are pleased to tell the world that Lee Van Asten has once again agreed to gather friends and share them with us on a Sunday afternoon in November. Come share with us music, laughter, joy, friends, music, wine and cheese. Mark it NOW and show up early. These concerts are high quality, and highly attended.

Peace Festival Choir
Advent Choral Event
The Songs of Mary
December 1, 8, 15 & 22, 2019
at 8:00 & 10:00am

This year we are expanding our annual advent choral concert into FOUR Sunday morning events. Our Peace Festival Choir will present FOUR different Magnificats. During the Eucharist on each Sunday in Advent, the choir will present an inspiring rendition of Mary's Song. We learned so much last year about this wonderful prayer it was necessary to expand our corporate knowledge base! The composers are: John Stainer, Herbert Howells, Michael Burkhardt and Marty Haugen. Since they will be sung at both services, you may attend one and still get to your own House of Worship and thus be part of this grand concert series.

Lutheran Hymn Festival
January 24, 2020 at 7:00pm

The choirs of Messiah Lutheran Church, Deacon John Renfroe, director, and the Peace Lutheran Choir, Ric Jaeggi, director, will join in a traditional, Lutheran grown Hymn Festival. It is our great pleasure to announce that Mark Mummert, of Trinity Lutheran in Massachusetts will be the guest musician. We are counting on you to come and add your voice as we gather around the music of the church, share our voices and ears centered on the theme: Unity at the Table.

Mark Mummert is Cantor at Trinity Lutheran Church, Worcester, MA, Artistic Director of Diamonds From The Dust, a professional vocal ensemble based in Worcester, and Assistant Director / Accompanist for the Worcester Chorus. He was the Distinguished Visiting Cantor at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg in 2015 and Director of Worship at Houston's Christ the King Lutheran Church (2008-2015). He was Seminary Musician at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia (1990-2008). Mark is a composer of the first musical setting of Holy Communion in Evangelical Lutheran Worship, the commended worship book of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Augsburg Fortress publishes his numerous psalm settings and other musical compositions for the liturgy.

We will gather in the Good Samaritan Hall where you can greet the performers and enjoy a wine and cheese reception.

Choirs of St. Columbkille Parish and Peace Lutheran Church present Faure's Requiem
February 23, 2020 at 2:00pm

By request, the choirs of St. Columbkille Parish and Peace Lutheran Church will join forces to present Faure's Requiem. Since we last joined in song, this beautiful piece has been asked for by members of both parishes and guests. Lee Van Asten will conduct, and Ric Jaeggi will be at the organ. You do not want to miss this beautiful piece and the respite it offers to a busy world.

Custom Royal Classic Organ Concert
March 15, 2020 at 3:00pm

The requests keep rolling along in this the final concert of 2020. Ric Jaeggi will present a program on the excellent Custom Royal Classic Organ. This concert will feature music of Franck, Vierne, Ryken, DeCou and will include the complete set of J.S. Bach's Schuberle Chorales. These chorales are among the last bits of organ music arranged/composed by JSB at the end of his life. There is also a high probability of a hymn to be sung and an attempt at humor. Do not get the last seat in the "house"!

A free will offering will be accepted at each concert.
